Free communication skills course for young

Do you want to improve communication and key social skills, or do you have a child or young person who wants to improve them? If so, we have this opportunity for you: During the half term holidays this year (October 2011, February and June 2012), SO-COPA (the Somali Community and Parents Association) and FOCUS (a local young people's charity) will be running a speaking and listening skills development course for up to 90 children and young people aged 11-19 years old. This personal development course can offer an amazing and powerful experience that can help young people to develop their interpersonal skills such as:

Teamwork

Leadership

Communication

Negotiation

Academic English and report writing

Self-confidence

Self-esteem

Task and time management

We expect that places will fill quickly, so please come and enroll before 1st October 2011 to avoid disappointment. The course is free of charge and all children and young people are welcome. It will be held in a safe and friendly environment, where you can meet new people and make friends. To enrol, either visit SOCOPA at Quba Community Centre, 19 Brunswick Street, Leicester, LE1 2LP or call 0116 262 8632 or email socopa@hotmail.co.uk

Course dates:

17th - 21st October 2011

13th - 17th February 2012

4th - 8th June 2012

Time: 9am - 3pm

This project is being run in partnership with FOCUS
